LAST WEEK'S PROCEEDINGS - 05 November 2014

This was no regular meeting! As a joint meeting between Rotary Clubs of HK Island East and Aberdeen (Hong Kong, not Scotland). It was also special as a meeting between a Rotary Club with a 60 years history, and one which can be considered a baby in the family.

Stella Mok of HKCC. There were 2 visiting guests from Shanghai, Rtn. Cliff Hegan and Mr. Ray Kim (potential member) of RC of Shanghai.

PP Uncle John asked all members of Rotary Club of Hong Kong Island East to be up standing for recognition. CP Candy then asked all members of Rotary Club of Aberdeen to be up standing for recognition as well. The joint Chairmen (well, Chairman and

PP Patrick Mak of Aberdeen introduced the speaker Ms. Sharon Cheung 張寶華, who's presentation was entitled 'A love like no others'. Ms Cheung's background includes management of listed company, as well as being a well-known TV program anchor and writer. She shared the content of her new book with us, as well as her point of view about love. After which PP Hubert lovingly thanked the speaker, as well as giving a long talk by declaring his opposite opinion first. PP Hubert ended his talk by singing a very popular Cantonese song which describe the love of brotherhood. Most loyal men in our club also have an opposite view! At 9.30pm, the meeting was adjourned, and all were united for a group photograph in our usual manner before the guest speaker was kept busy signing copies of her new book!

There was a full house attendance of 40 Rotarians and guests present, and quite a buzz was in the air when President Norman rang the bell at 7:35PM to start the meeting, before handing over to our beloved Uncle John to chair the meeting together with CP Candy of Aberdeen. This was also a special occasion for Uncle John and he felt especially excited that this was the first time he had chaired our club meeting after his presidency 29 years ago. He emphasized that he had therefore beat the record of PP Henry who chaired the meeting last week after 11 years. Both DGN Eric and PP Hubert had brought along their commander from home, Christine and Josephine respectively. IPP Jonathan was then asked to introduce his guests, Mr. Edwin Lam and William Ng and IPP Chair Lady) first announced a special and warm welcome to DGN Eric who was celebrating his birthday with a very full day's program which had started with a district committee meeting in the morning, a relaxing trip with his wife Christine in the afternoon before rushing back to attend this joint meeting between the two Clubs. DGN Eric may always be short of time but he's never short on energy! After PP Hubert was invited to lead the birthday song for DGN Eric, Rtn. Kenny and VP Jimmy Chan (RC Aberdeen), PE William announced the Red Box takings of HK $1,700.

A happy eating occasion!

The 2nd Happy Lunch with Choi Jun students took place on Thursday, Nov. 6th. This is a meaningful project to allow the students to have a chance to go out to a public restaurants, with our members also taking this opportunity to talk to the students to understand more on their needs.

SPOTLIGHT ON: Sharon Cheung

Sharon started the talk by saying "Being a mistress may not be a bad idea". She went on to talk about her belief in love. Sure enough her topic is "A love like no others". She said that true love is like brotherhood, one is willing to sacrifice for the other. The love may apply to man to man, woman to woman, married man to woman other than his wife or married woman to man other than her husband. All these are romantic relationships. She also encouraged the audience to weigh up their relationship and have second thoughts to the relationship if they found it not worth continuing.

The book she has recently published reflects in part her own true story for she recapped what her mentor told her that in history, nothing is real apart from time and events, while in fiction stories, all else are real except that of time and events; some of the stories also originate from being the sounding board of her friends.

The book starts with a story about a girl who lost her virginity to a playboy to start her romantic life. She went on to cite a few examples of the girls she described in the book. The floor has been anxiously listening to one story after another.

After her talk, during Q&A time, many brave men raised their hands to declare that they love their wife so much and would not allow such special love affairs to happen in their life. This is such an interesting and controversial topic. The atmosphere was fun. There were a lot of discussions during and after the talk.
