LAST WEEK'S PROCEEDINGS - 11 FEBRUARY 2015

As we slowly approach the Lunar New Year, you can almost feel our city gradually winding itself down in preparation for the annual celebration amidst friends, family and festivity. And that's how it felt this week with a good turnout of members. Chair PP Eddy declared the meeting open at 1pm, and began by giving a warm welcome to our visitors, who included AG

Michael Chiu, and visiting Rotarian Wallace from Peninsula South. We then had the announcements, before acting sergeant at arms Charles announced the red box takings of $1,200.

PP Eddy then invited AG Michael to say a few words to our members about the coming Joint Area 3 Luncheon on 23rd Feb, which has been organised by all 7 Area 3 presidents, and it is the first time such a gathering of all Area 3 clubs has taken place. AG Michael encouraged our members to join the luncheon and join in the festive warmth along with our fellow members, and to also give a special Rotary welcome to the special guest speaker Hon. Jasper Tsang Yuk Sing, President of LegCo, HKSAR.

Rotarian PN Chris was then invited to introduce today's guest speakers, Richard Gocher and Ray Lee who had been invited to speak about "LIVE ENGLISH," an English improvement programme in Hong Kong, having just finished a teaching assignment for the Hong Kong Tourist Board Richard began by outlining the need for better English in Hong Kong and gave some examples of why.

After the presentation, PP Rudy was invited to thank the speakers, before everyone stood to join in a toast to RI, to RC Peninsula South and HKIE, followed by our group photo, and the meeting adjourned at 2pm.

SPOTLIGHT ON: LIVE ENGLISH

About the speakers

Ray Lee Programme Director and Principal Trainer

Ray Lee is an English enthusiast and professional trainer who uses an effective, original and non-academic approach to help people improve English competency. He holds a Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE), the highest level Cambridge ESOL qualification which recognizes a standard of English similar to that of an educated native speaker. Ray represented the English Speaking Union Hong Kong for at the 2009 International Conference held in The Oxford University.

Ray has over 18 years of extensive business and language training experience. His clients included both local and multinational corporations such as Hong Kong Tourism Board, Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing, CLP, MTR, Hang Seng Bank, Manulife, IBM, Wharf T&T, Dell Computer, The HKSAR Government, to name a few. Ray holds an MBA from The University of Melbourne, a Master of Science in Information Systems Management from The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, a Post Graduate Diploma in Supply Chain and Logistics Management from The University of Hong Kong, and a Bachelor of Marketing from RMIT University. He lectures business and language programmes in local and overseas institutes, including The University of Hong Kong, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, The City University of Hong Kong, The Hong Kong Management Association, Vocational Training Council and The Monash University of Australia.

Richard Gocher General Manager and Principal Trainer

Richard has helped with Ray Lee in developing and delivering training programmes for over 14 years in Hong Kong. For the last seven years he has specialized in business communications training, specifically English writing and speaking. Richard has a certificate in teaching English having completed a TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) Course in the United Kingdom.

He has been living in Hong Kong since 1982 and worked in advertising, media and marketing in both international companies and his own smaller local ones. He combines in-depth business knowledge with ample language training experience resulting in a unique skillset which is effectively helping executives in Hong Kong. Richard runs public courses as well as tailor-made in-house programmes and one-on-one coaching.

During the presentation, Ray Lee gave some background to how and why the Live English courses were established. A Hong Kong native, Ray recounted his experiences in Australia, where it was stressed to him that he needed to improve his English if he was going to do well there. Instead of turning to textbook courses, Ray relied on the use of the classic dictionary to literally teach himself word by word and day by day. This was the practical, 'live' teaching style that Ray was eventually to call upon to establish Live English in Hong Kong. Both Richard and Ray emphasised the problems with most current, available English courses in Hong Kong. The lessons are boring and just based on textbook methodology, resulting in them being ineffective and generally poor in standard. No wonder then that the English standards are general falling in Hong Kong year by year to the point that we are now way behind places like Singapore and even Shanghai for English. Not exactly a healthy position for 'Asia's World City', as it affects not only our tourism but also our reputation as an international business and financial centre. Especially not just with spoken English but where emails are concerned which are often misleading and misinterpreted when dealing with the international community. Live English strives to make learning English fun, engaging and interactive, through quality customised courses. Richard also stressed the importance of having not just native English speakers but also the local Cantonese aspect to their teaching. Being able to look at English learning from the perspective of the Chinese speaking learner, with local experts who understand unique local needs. The courses focus on speaking and writing business English, accurate pronunciation, presenting in English, and reading to understand English. Through the fun, interactive approach, Live English manages to build the confidence of the students where they begin to feel much more comfortable with using the language.

THE LAST LAUGH - Why Couples Fight

My wife sat down on the couch next to me as I was flipping channels.

She asked. 'What's on TV?'

I said, 'Dust.'

And then the fight started....

My wife was hinting about what she wanted for our upcoming anniversary. She said, 'I want something shiny that goes from 0 to 100 in about 3 seconds.'

I bought her a weighing scale.

And then the fight started.... ********

When I got home last night, my wife demanded that I take her someplace expensive.

So, I took her to a petrol pump And then the fight started....

My wife is standing & looking in the bedroom mirror. She was not happy with what she saw and said to me,'I feel horrible; I look old, fat and ugly. I really need you to give me a compliment.'

I replied, 'Your eyesight's perfect.'

And then the fight started....

I asked my wife, "Where do you want to go for our anniversary?"

It warmed my heart to see her face melt in sweet appreciation.

"Somewhere I've not been in a long time."

So I took her to the kitchen.

And then the fight started....
