Out and About

October 21st - Our Annual club sponsored - Choi Jun Inter School Swimming Gala competition. Rotarians attending: P Stacy, PP William with Rotarianne Fanny, PP Rudy, PP Eddy, PP Norman (Also a DS) Dir. Leo and HS Gilbert. With the honourable attendance of DG HW Fung and DS Vincent.

The weather was absolutely beautiful and fitting for the day, the sun way out and the kids were laughing and smiling. The highlight for us members was the cheering and the placing of winning medals. Some children were more stoic when they received their awards, others were jumping for joy.

There was one incident in which a swimmer was a bit confused and stranded in the middle of the pool, not sure where to go, and all of us cheered for him to swim towards the middle exit. (sorry chris can you help me word this better.) its like he swam to the middle ledge of the pool to climb out.

Choi jun school won top prize. everyone was happy! and P Stacy gave her speech in Cantonese with the help of EVERYONE - HS Gilbert writing out the speech, Dir Leo, PP William practicing with her.

October 20th Fellowship Dinner - Wonderful FEAST of all FEASTS!! We dined until 1030pm. PP William brought 2 bottles Chinese wine and PP Henry brought two bottles of Red wine. Rtn. Teresa did an amazing job selecting the menu, the food was delicious and all 18 of us were snugly fit together in the private function room. We laughed and shared stories, and enjoyed ourselves very much. Next dinner fellowship will be on November 24th!

NEXT WEEK'S SPEAKER: PP John Luk

PP John Luk now has 4 Doctorate degrees under his belt! He is coming back to the club (we miss him!) to share with us what he's been doing and also what it is actually like to be so smart and have 4 Doctorate degrees!
