

LAST WEEK'S PROCEEDINGS - NOV 8th, 2017

P Stacy kicked off the meeting at 1.10pm, and welcomed guests and members. Visiting us once again of our favourite guest PP Pedro Ching from RC of City North. During the announcements, P Stacy made an announcement on the Taipei Sister Club's visit, and asked members to join the Xmas party and Horse racing lunch, details will be provided by PP William through whatsapp group and Email. P Stacy introduces today's speaker, Julian Marland, Director of Development from the West Kowloon Cultural Authority. Julian also happens to be President Julian Marland of our Grand Daughter Club - RC Shouson Hill. The topic of today is What's Really Going On? We have heard about West Kowloon Cultural District for a period of time, but most of us do not know what is really going on there. P Julian gave us a walk through of the plan of the West Kowloon Cultural District, show us what is building in process and what is going to build, all the building are designed and built in international grade. We are so excited that Hong Kong will have new museum of visual culture, numerous theatres, concert halls and other performance venues. We are looking forward to the openings of those buildings. After P Julian delivered his speech, P Stacy invited our newest member Bernard to thanks the speaker for the first time in his Rotary life. Good job Bernard. P Stacy then asked all to rise, have a toast to RC Shouson Hill, RC City North, RI and RC HKIE. Meeting adjourned at 2pm, and all joined for a group photo.
