LAST WEEK'S PROCEEDINGS - JULY 26TH, 2017

This week the meeting was officially an EGM, and P Stacy rang the bell at 1pm, and started by welcoming everyone and it was a very healthy turnout again (17 members). P Stach then went through some updates, and featured some recent news from members, including Rtn Jason, who scored a Hole in One recently at golf, and Rtn Teresa, who was invited to say a few words about her recent trip to Japan where she climbed Mount Fuji. After the announcements and Red Box, P Stacy invited PP George to chair the EGM, and he called the meeting to order at 1.20pm. There were two topics to vote on. One being the auditor's report, for which there was no objection. The other being the topic of meeting times and frequency. This was opened up for discussion among those present. The question was whether we stay as we are, with 4 meetings per month, or change to another option, such as 2 meetings per month and 1 fellowship event. With 17 members present, so the voting strength met quorum. At the core of the discussion there was the issue of poor attendance, and whether switching to less meetings would change that. In the end, it was agreed to keep the status quo of weekly luncheons, and to explore possibilities of lighter lunch options/coffee options. All members present joined in the discussion and it was a very healthy debate. The EGM called to close at 1:43PM, after which we enjoyed some fellowship, while P Stach also introduced next week's speaker. until P Stacy rang the bell at 2pm to close the meeting and called for a toast to RI and RCHKIE. Meeting adjourned.

THE LAST LAUGH - Healthy eating

Mrs. Smith had cooked a halfway decent meal one night, and Mr Smith had been fussily picking at it. He was about half-way finished his meal when he took a good long look at the potato. He looked over at Mrs. Smith and said, "This potato is bad." Mrs. Smith picked it up, smacked it, and put it back on his plate... then said, "If that potato causes any more trouble, you just let me know."
