Last Meeting: Online Meeting

When life throws us lemons, here at HKIE, we learn how to juggle! Due to the COVID19 preventative measures, our first meeting was converted to an online zoom fellowship! Initially we had planned for July 15th 2020 to be the Club Installation....we had all the formalities down, SAAs allocated, District Officers invited, emcee scripted prepared....and then within a matter of days we had to cancel our meeting because of the restriction of gatherings. So there we had our zoom online meeting.

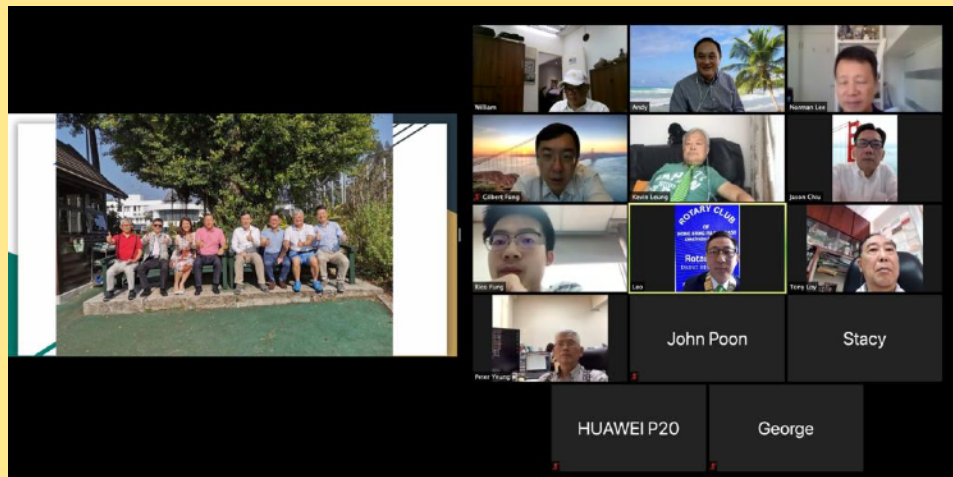

We are quite happy with how many members are joining our zoom meeting formats. In total, we had 16 members attending.

P Leo was well prepared, he adorned the HKIE presidential sash and he had our club bell on hand! P Leo rang the bell at 1:05 p.m.

P Leo delivered both club and district announcements. Then he spoke of PP Uncle John's Memorial Project. (refer to last Vol.68 No.01 Tung Feng Bulletin) P Leo shared with us the photos he sent to Vivian (PP Uncle John's daughter) they were warm photos of P Leo and PP George playing on one of PP Uncle John's favorite golf grounds and also a group photo of our HKIE Rotarians sitting on PP Uncle John's favorite bench. Fellow members, do kindly consider to participate in PP Uncle John's Memorial Project, we are sure Uncle John's family and Uncle John himself would appreciate your kind gesture.

Then, DGN Norman presented about the Online Academy.

Meeting adjourned at 2:00 p.m. No red box collected.
