Last Meeting: Online Academy

P Leo was well prepared, he adorned the HKIE presidential sash and he had our club bell on hand! P Leo rang the bell at 1:05 p.m. We had a total of 13 members attending with one guest Vagaman Wai (P Leo's friend)

P Leo delivered very thoroughly both club and district announcements.

Then, DGN Norman (D3450 Online Academy Chair) presented about the Online Academy.

The Online Academy has a wealth of information for us Rotarians. The courses range from: Beginner, Intermediate and Advance. DGN Norman walked us through the different course offerings. To name a few: Rotary Basics, Building a Diverse Club, Leading Change, Best Practices for Engaging Members, Kickstart Your New Member Orientation, Strategies for Attracting New Members and Protecting Youth Programme Participants. Courses range from 15 minutes to 45 minutes to over an hour in duration. Members can access the Online Learning Academy via their my Rotary account. P Leo has already completed Certification Level 4, and he joked that now he has time to go over to meet members to help them set up their online learning and perhaps even learn together! (He sincerely will do this!)

Meeting adjourned at 2:00 p.m. No red box collected.

A Message from President Leo

Dear Fellow Members of HKIE,

With the pandemic situation not clearing any time soon, more and more would be moving to online including regular luncheon meetings, DG/AG visits, District events/trainings, Sister club events etc.

The downside is that we cannot meet in person. The benefit is that we could join a lot more activities in the comfort of our own place. To maximize the benefit of your membership, may I suggest to install Zoom if you haven't done so. We are also active on social media such as Facebook and Instagram. Please check it out, like our pages, interact and follow us. If you need assistance, I am more than happy to come to you.

Yours in Rotary,
President Leo

Happy Birthday to our Splendid August Birthday Boys!
