Then came the highlight of the day with Rtn Jonah introduced today's guest speaker, Jasmine Hogan, Scholar from Rotary district 7620 in the mid-Atlantic USA. Her topic was “A musical journey from East to West” and she spoke about her club and her sponsorship of her research project in China.

Ms. Jasmine Hogan, a native of Raleigh, NC, began playing the harp in 1998 at the age of eight. Jasmine has worked with numerous orchestras and ensembles, and has appeared as a soloist not only in the US, but also in Hungary, Switzerland, and Singapore.

In November, Jasmine participated in the Second International Harp Competition in Szeged, where she was awarded Third Prize in her division. Jasmine recently graduated from the Peabody Conservatory in May 2011, with a Bachelor's degree in harp performance. Currently Jasmine is studying the traditional Chinese harp in Beijing as a Rotary International Foundation Ambassadorial Scholar.

Ms. Jasmine Hogan started to introduce herself with a few slides:

About Jasmine Hogan:

The 4th St James Settlement Elderly Tea Reception - Serve with Fun and Care

The 4th St. James Settlement Elderly Tea Reception was held in Tai Hang Sai Kindness Centre on Oct 21, 2011

There were four members and spouse participated in this meaningful event. They are Director Kevin Leung and his wife Catherine, Rotarian Jonah Cheung and Membership Chair William Wong. Since this is our fourth times event with them, 26 elderly liked to meet us as they treated us as their old friends upon our arrival at the center at 12 noon.

We were divided into three groups. Before the tea reception, we helped the elderly to make their own salad in a cup. The salad contains peach fruit, yoga and peanut. Then they marked their name on the cup after getting their job done. These salads were their dessert after tea reception.

We finished the salad in 30 minutes and took group photo in front of the centre. Then we moved to "CHOI LUNG" restaurant which was opposite to the center. We had 30 people sitting in a private room with 3 big round tables, each table served the foods including dim sum, vegetable, congee and fried rice. After all the ordered food on the table were eaten, we enjoyed the special dessert which was their own made salad.

This meaningful event finished at 1.30pm, all of them say "Good Bye" to us with smile, left with us a wonderful memory after this service. The next tea party will be held on Nov 11.

JOKE FOR THE WEEK

Subject:       The Man of Your House

A husband had just finished reading a new book entitled, "You Can Be THE Man of Your House."

He stormed to his wife in the kitchen and announced, "From now on, you need to know that I am the man of this house and my word is Law.

You will prepare me a gourmet meal tonight, and when I'm done eating my meal, you will serve me a scrumptious dessert. After dinner, you are going to go upstairs with me and we will have the kind of sex that I want!

Afterwards, you are going to draw me a bath so I can relax. You will wash my back and towel me dry and bring me my robe. Then, you will massage my feet and hands. Then tomorrow, guess who's going to dress me and comb my hair?"

The wife replied, "The funeral director would be my first guess."
