What Happened Last Last Week

19th December was a very special date as it was our Club's last meeting in 2001 and a special celebration to Christmas and New Year.

President Stephen welcomed all of us for a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year. He reminded us the next meeting would be on 2nd January 2002. A special welcome to our guests, Mr. Joseph Chan, club's good old friend and Mrs. Eileen Law, Rtn Rudy's wife. President Stephen also extended his welcome to President-Elect Chris for his return from holiday with his family in Australia. The birthday boy PE Chris requested our club's good old friend, Mr. Joseph Chan to lead the birthday song.

President Stephen presented the souvenir, a banner with Christmas theme, was received from VPSD for the Christmas party held on 16th December at the Baptist Camp Ground, Fanling. Rtn Rudy reported that there was about totally 120 students, family members, staff and Rotaractors attended the event. President Stephen then invited PDG Uncle Peter to present the Paul Harris medal to Rtn Rudy. Uncle Peter expressed the special thanks to Rtn Rudy and especially to his mother's contribution.

PP John Kwok announced that the latest attendance rate had been improved to 80% due to the active make-up actions from members. He reminded us to continue the good work. He also presented two copies of the bounded memoir of Tung Feng from last year. One was presented to IPP Tajwar and the other one was presented to PDG Uncle Peter. PP John Kwok also presented the trophy to IPP Tajwar for the second runner-up trophy for the golf tournament held in November.

President Stephen shared that we had a board meeting last week. The board had agreed to support members to attend the district meeting. Cost for each member is at HK$ 1,500. He suggested new members and board members attend. He also informed us about the annual function which had been discussed on the meeting. It had been agreed to have dinner function on 6th April 2002, our club's chartered date. Also this would be the time when our sister clubs will visit us from the Philippines and Japan. PP John Kwok would be the coordinator for this function.

Regarding the membership development, President Stephen shared that VP Henry would present a proposal soon and PP John Kwok would also organize plans to meet the target for five more new members.

Hon Sec Eddy, the acting sergeant-at-arms, reported that there had 19 members attended the meeting today with a total contribution of HK$ 1,400.

Next we came to the Christmas carol singing led by our old friend Mr. Joseph Chan. He thanked the club's invitation and also special thanks to the songs preparation by PP Li. Then he led the club to sing a number of carols and he also sang two songs solo. The club also invited PP John Luk to sing an Italian classic solo.

Last but not the least, a toast was made to Excelsior Hotel for their hospitality on the house wine and all the guests, before the meeting was declared adjourned.

Rotary Information

Message from RI General Secretary Ed Futa

Dear Rotarian,

September, 2001

Ever since Rotary World was first published in February 1995 as a newspaper for Rotary leaders, clubs have been receiving three gratis copies. With this issue, clubs will now receive only one. Rapidly rising postal rates have forced this change.

Fortunately, more and more Rotarians have access to Rotary World through the Internet (www.rotary.org/newsandinfo/RotaryWorld/index.html). The nine language versions of the five-times-a-year newspaper are posted at that RI Web site, together with a number of back issues. They can be easily downloaded, copied, and circulated. An added feature of the Web version of the newspaper is the color photographs, the cost of which is prohibitive for the printed paper.

Of course, many Rotarians lack computer access and/or prefer a printed copy of the newspaper. It is my hope that club presidents will continue to share their copies of the Rotary World with the club bulletin editor, the membership as a whole, and Rotaract and Interact clubs that club sponsors.

I ask club presidents and the governors to make known to their fellow Rotarians, through club bulletins and governor's monthly letter, that Rotary World is available both on the Web, at the address above, and by US$5 individual subscription. For subscriptions, contact Data Services by e-mail: data@rotaryintl.org or fax: 847-733-9340.

I hope you will continue to make use of this valuable leadership resource tool.

Sincerely,

Ed Futa
RI General Secretary

LAUGH FOR THE WEEK

Two Italian men talking

A bus stops and two Italian men get on. They sit down and engage in an animated conversation. The lady sitting behind them ignores them at first, but her attention is galvanized when she hears one of the men say the following:

"Emma come first. Den I come. Den two asses come together. I come once-a-more. Two asses, they come together again. I come again and pee twice. Then I come one lasta time."

"You foul-mouthed swine," retorted the lady indignantly. "In this country we don't talk about our sex lives in public!"

"Hey, coola down lady," said the man. "Who talkin' abouta sexa? I'm a justa tellin' my frienda how to spella 'Mississippi'."

In case the plane goes down

Three old black ladies were getting ready to take a plane across the ocean.

The first lady said, "I don't know bout y'all, but I'm gonna wear me some hot pink panties before I gets on dat plane." "Why you gonna wear dat?" the other two asked. The first replied, "Cause, if dat plane goes down and I'm out there laying butt-up in a corn field, dey can find me first."

The second lady says, "Well, I'm a-gonna wear me some fluorescent orange panties." "Why you gonna wear dat?" the others asked. The second lady answered: "Cause if dis here plane is goin' down and I'm floating butt-up in the ocean, dey can see me first."

The third old lady says, "Well, I'm not going to wear any panties....." "What? No panties?!" the others said in disbelief. "Dat's right; you heard me. I'm not wearing any panties," the third lady said, "cause if dis plane goes down, dey always look for dat black box."

"Dear, if you're gonna pad your bra with Kleenex, take them out of the box first!"
