The 26th New Board of Director of Rotaract Club Hong Kong Island East Installation Ceremony was held on February 5 2012. A New Page of Leadership is Logged On By President of RAC HKIE Henry Cheung

In the past warm Sunday afternoon, Rotaract Club (RAC) of Hong Kong Island East Installation Ceremony was held in PCCW Staff Club. It was our great honor to invite several VIP guests from the Rotary Club of Hong Kong Island East, together with Miss Kristen Lindley, Ambassodorial Scholar from USA, and Wine expert, Mr. Horace Cheung of Yui Kee to deliver the cheerful and meaningful speeches to all the young Rotaractors. There were 48 guests and participants in the event.

President Eric Chin, New Generation Committee Chair representative Hon. Secretary Past President, Wendy Mung, Past District Rotartact Comm. Chair, Sally Ho and District Rotaract Representative Edwina shared their precious personal experience as a Rotarian to us, and delivered good wishes to the new Rotaract Club.

As the fresh blood of Rotaract Club of Hong Kong Island East, we are willing to execute our responsibility to the community and society, not only in Hong Kong or China Mainland, but also in international areas. The talented young generation in Rotaract Club is ready to conquer the challenges and grow with the Rotaract Club and its mother Club together. We are prepared to be a successful leader, an excellent team member, and a good person responsible for our society. It is believed that, our passion, energy and efforts will, not only convey care and love to the group around us that needs help, but also give the opportunities to train ourselves, to learn from our peers and to be more mature.

IPP Angus was invited to deliver his speech to share his reflection for reactivating Rotaract Club of HK Island East one and half year ago. Then he passed the President Sash to RAC President Henry. President Eric pinned RAC President Henry. Both also pinned all Directors and Service Chairs.

Miss Kristen Lindley also gave a colorful speech to all the attendants about her experience and life in Hong Kong in the past half year; making new friends, exchanging different cultures, and most importantly knowing the Hong Kong Rotary Clubs. It was glad to hear the sounds about Rotary from the other side of the earth, especially from our peers. We know that the purpose is the same, and we are all making efforts towards it.

Moreover, we were glad to learn a little knowledge about wine from our wine expert, Mr. Horace Cheung, and enjoyed the wines sponsored by our three VIP guests.

The Installation Ceremony was ended; however, it is just the beginning of our Rotaract Club. Now, it is time for us, all the new Rotaract Club members to dedicate our thoughts, our energy and our love!

President Henry's message:

"It is my pleasure to become the President of Rotaract Club of Hong Kong Island East. In the coming year, I would like to lead my team to fulfill the spirit of Rotary to serve our society and help someone in need. “Once in a lifetime” RYLA experience Jan 25-29 2012, Wong Yee Chau Camp, Sau Kung.

Reported by the Rotary Youth Leadership Award (RYLA) Graduate - RAC HKIE Service Chair Myra Shen, PolyU Msc E-commerce Postgraduate Student.

Four days is not a long time in the day of our lives, but what if we fill it with a “once in a life time” an experience you will never forget and they have the power to haunt you for the rest of your life.

In the past time, I never want to be a leader, but I was always appointed to be a leader in some activities or events. At that time, my way of being a leader is very juvenile, actually I didn't quite know what leadership is on earth. Later on, something happened just changed my mind. I want to be a leader not because of getting hold of something, however, it is for the reason that I want to make some change if the current situation is not your expectation, the only way is to be a leader to cooperate with others and kindly use the leadership to make that change.

The theme of this RYLA camping is “leadership”, it is a four days three nights camping with many challenges and tasks. It is really a tough training beyond my imagination! But I really learn a lot from the experience and find what I am lack of. I have made many friends in this training they are from different places and bring different culture to share with me, we even teach Mongolian friend to learn some Cantonese, due to that they teach us Mongol too.

Those days we suffered from a severe lack of sleep, freezing, starving, exhausting. And for most of us the most challenging part is “night hiking” in an unknown island. We were emergency mustered that night and everyone was not getting well prepared, we only brought some water bananas and flashlight. We use map and compass to fix location but we still went some wrong ways, the road is narrow and full of different sizes of stones that is really hard for us to walk, the endless mountains really beat our confidence, we don't know when will we reach the destination, we walked for the whole night everyone ran out of gas! But to my surprise, I finally realized that after suffered from exhaustion, starvation and scary, all we can rely on is spirit and persistence, teammates encouraged each other and how powerful is that spirit. Under that harsh conditions, we must keep our mind clear and finish some tasks, it stroke me that it is just like life, everyone has different kinds of difficulties when we face our own life, however, what we must do and what we must be responsible for others. In addition, when we be a helper and a giver, sometimes we cannot empathic understanding what they are suffering, but through this tough training I think I will get better understand what limit of surviving is and try to comprehend the people who need help more.

After break through the comfort zone I gain a lot and find the potential part inside my body. During the training, I got a cold and hurt my knees, but to tell the truth I really "enjoy" that pain. I learned a lot from the others, many of my teammates got a fluent speaking ability of English and gave a public talk and they are so considerate and outstanding. Sometimes I was too shy and nervous to share my opinions.

The last day of the camping, we watched the photos and videos of four days training. I cried..everyone make great effort to this event....I am so touched. After back to reality I still feel my heart is on that island, the experience is so impressed....while now I have more clear and definite goals of myself.

In the days ahead, I think I will try to feedback what I felt to the world and make a better change as a leader. I also wish that more and more people will join us in volunteering to help the people in need to survive.

Post Comment from P Eric:

Myra is my student in PolyU. I have reminded her the tough training of RYLA this year which will be under Police style leadership in a discipline way. Myra shown courage to accept and complete it. We are proud of you!

LAUGH FOR THE WEEK

Subject: Password idea

Always choose a memorable password!

Have you ever had this problem??

A lady helps her man to install a new computer.
Once it is completed, she tells him to select a password, a word that he'll always remember.

As the computer asks him to enter it, he looks at his wife and with a macho gesture and a wink in his eye, he selects a word but she is annoyed with him and his reaction, when he selects: penis.
As he hits "enter", to validate the selection, his wife collapses with laughter and rolls on the floor in hysteria.....

The computer had replied:

TOO SHORT- ACCESS DENIED!
