Our annual Uncle John Kwok golf tournament was held on 5 May in Fanling Golf Club and followed by a fellowship dinner in CRC and prize presentation.

PP Heman Lam announced the result of the golf tournament as follows:

Best Gross Total Score – PP Tajwar Shadikhan

First Runner up – PP/PE Norman Lee

Second Runner up – PP John Kwok

Best Net Total Score – Rtn Kevin Leung

First Runner up – PP David Li

Second Runner up – Johnny Cheng (incoming new member)

Longest Drive – PP Heman Lam and PP Stephen Liu

Closest to Pin – Johnny Cheng and PP Stephen Liu

Booby prize – District Governor Nominee Designate Eric Chin and President Jonathan Lamport.

In addition, all other participants in the golf tournament were given a “Lai See” by Uncle John.

PP/PE Norman reported that there would be a District Training Assembly to be held on 24 May in Regal Airport Hotel and all incoming Officers and Board Members should attend.

The acting SAA Rtn. William Wong reported a total collection of $1,000 for the Red Box.

The highlight of today’s program was the presentation by Ms Miranda Ng and Betty Lee of the International Social Service Hong Kong Branch.

PP/PE Norman formally introduced the two speakers and Miranda Ng was the Communication and Public Relations Officer of the NGO – International Social Service (ISS) Hong Kong Branch. Her colleague Betty Lee was in charge of the Integrated Family Service Centre in Shamshuipo.

Miranda said that ISS was first established in Hong Kong in 1958 and in 2013, it marked the celebration of its presence in Hong Kong for 55 years.

The vision of ISS is to have children, individuals, families and migrants across countries live in dignity and harmony, and be contributing members to a just, humane and caring society.

They worked in many countries all over the world and the Hong Kong Branch was admitted to the main organization in 1972.

The main services provided by ISS HK include:

- Services for Children & Youth such as adoption programme (serves over 100 clients p.a.), foster care programme (handles over 200 cases p.a.), school social work programme and school support service (serves 4 primary schools and 10 secondary schools with about 10,000 students), small group home programme for children aged 4 to 18 (operates 12 small group homes for 98 boys and girls).
- Services for Families such as Integrated Family Service Centre, Cross-boundary and Inter-country Casework Service.
- Services for Migrants such as Programme for New Arrivals from Mainland China, Mobile Information Services in the airport, HOPE support Service Centre for Ethnic Minorities, and other services for Non-Chinese Migrants.

- Services for Elderly such as the programme for portable comprehensive social security assistance recipients and the programme for Old Age Allowance Recipients under the “Guangdong Scheme”.
- Family Systems theory Training & Counselling Services such as the ISS Wofoo Family institute which serves 500 professionals and 300 individuals/families p.a.

Then Betty Lee told us about her works in her Integrated Family Service Centre in Shamshuipo. Shamshuipo area is the district with the highest number of people relying on 綜援, highest density of 劏房 and with many poor and elderly people. She is now serving many non-Chinese migrants and helping them to integrate into the society.

One of her works now was to organize yoga class to help people to recover from depression. She believed that exercise is the best medicine to cure the problem.

She hoped that Rotary Club could provide some assistance to their organization in term of both resources and financial support.

During the question and answer time, many members asked a lot of questions about their organization and the services provided.

PP Heman Lam then thanked our speakers and promised to arrange a vocational visit to their Centre in Shamshuipo.

President Jonathan Lamport formally closed the meeting at 2:05 pm and proposed a toast to Rotary International coupled with Rotary Club of Hong Kong Island East.

Subject: Jesus and Moses

A burglar broke into a house one night.
 He shined his flashlight around,
 looking for valuables when a voice in the dark said,
 'Jesus knows you're here.'

He nearly jumped out of his skin,
 clicked his flashlight off, and froze.

When he heard nothing more,
 after a bit, he shook his head and continued.

Just as he pulled the stereo out so he could disconnect the wires, clear as a bell he heard
 'Jesus is watching you.'

Freaked out, he shined his light around frantically, looking for the source of the voice.

Finally, in the corner of the room, his flashlight beam came to rest on a parrot.

'Did you say that?'
he hissed at the parrot.

'Yep', the parrot confessed, then squawked,
'I'm just trying to warn you that he is watching you.'

The burglar relaxed.
'Warn me, huh? Who in the world are you?'

'Moses,' replied the bird.

'Moses?' the burglar laughed.
'What kind of people would name a bird Moses?'

'The kind of people that would name a Rottweiler Jesus.'
