PE Eric was invited to brief members of the Hip Hop Dance project we sponsored to Holy Carpenter Secondary School students and Youth Outreach. Then PE Eric introduced Speakers: Mr. Tse Che Yau, Vice Principal of Holy Carpenter Secondary School(HCSS) , Miss Tsang Hin Man, Arts Department Head of HCSS), Mr. Lawrence Tse, Assistant Executive Director, Youth Development of Youth Outreach (YO), Miss Ling Chan, Director, School of HipHop of YO, and two students from HCSS: Ho LoLo and Ng Chi Ho.

Mr. Tse of YO kicked off the talk by showing various pictures and invited members to comment on what were the meaning of each picture. They reflected the perception that many adults or parents should look at our young generation from different angles so as to communicate and understand them better.

Then, Vice Principal Tse told us more about the Holy Carpenter Secondary School and how he gradually developed more extra-curricular activities for their students. He also expressed appreciation for the support of the Hip Hop Project to their 25 Students.

Miss Tsang of HCSS reported to us the progress of the project and shared her observation about students who enjoyed the Hip Hop project which brought a more positive learning attitude in school

Student Ho Lo Lo and Ng Chi Ho brought two posters which packed with the appreciation notes from all 25 students who received training in this project. This reflected the project sponsored by our Club was well received by students. They both agreed that the training had changed their learning attitude and they become more active in learning, better discipline and aim for a better goal. The Graduation performance in Park Central and the Inter-School competition enriched their learning experience and reminded them to strive hard to achieve an elevating goal. They also expressed their great appreciation for our Club's support to enable them to have these rewarding learning experiences.

Following the talk, Pres. Heman thanked for all the speakers in sharing their experiences.

President reminded members that the next week May 25 speaker will be Ms. Lily Chan, CEO of Mannings HK to come and speak with us on the retail market.

Meeting was adjourned at 2:10pm and everybody stayed behind for a group photo after a toast to RI.

JOKE FOR THE WEEK

Subject: MONEY IS WHAT ALL OF US WANT? EVERY ONE SHOULD AGREE.

When without money, eats wild vegetables at home

When has money, eats same wild vegetables in fine restaurant.

When without money, rides bicycle;

When has money, rides the same 'exercise machine'.

When without money, walks to earn food

When has money, walks to burn the fat

Man O Man ! never fails to deceive thyself !

When without money, wishes to get married;
When has money, wishes to get divorced.

When without money, wife becomes secretary;
When has money, secretary becomes wife.

When without money, acts like rich man;
When has money, acts like poor man.

Man, O Man! never can tell the simple truth !

Says share market is bad but keeps speculating;
Says money is evil but keeps accumulating.
Says high positions are lonely but keeps wanting them.
Says gambling & drinking is bad but keeps indulging;

Man O Man ! Never means what he says and never says what he means!
